Accelerated Master's Program (AMP)

GUIDELINES

1. Undergraduate students admitted to the AMP are granted provisional admission to the English Education MA program. They must still apply through the Graduate School and be formally admitted to the MA program in their final year of undergraduate study.
2. This is a continuous enrollment program requiring students to be continuously registered in fall and spring semesters — both upon the completion of the undergraduate degree and throughout the completion of the AMP. Deferral of enrollment into the master's program is not permitted and continuous registration (CR) may not be used until the second semester in which a student is officially admitted to a graduate program.
3. Students may enroll in up to nine credits of 500-level regular coursework of the English Education graduate program as undergraduates, while paying the undergraduate tuition rate. These credits will be counted toward the undergraduate degree. Regular 500-level courses in which the student earns a grade of B or better will, in addition, be counted toward the graduate degree contingent on the student's formal admission to the graduate program.
4. There may be implications for federal student aid. Undergraduate students enrolled in graduate level coursework should contact the Office of Financial Aid for information about the availability of financial aid for such coursework.
5. Students must complete the Graduate School application and pay the application fee during their final year as undergraduates. Graduate applications will not be accepted earlier than one year prior to starting full time in the graduate program.
6. Students must complete and submit the Request to Double Count Courses Form (GS4, located on RAMweb) to the Graduate School once admitted into the Graduate School and prior to completing the undergraduate degree.

7. Final admission to the partnering graduate program and the Graduate School is granted when students meet the minimum program-specific and Graduate School admissions criteria upon completion of their bachelors' degrees.
8. AMP students admitted to the MA program must earn a minimum of 21 credits after admission and must also satisfy THE GRADUATE DEGREE REQUIREMENTS regular and non-regular credit requirements accordingly.
9. AMP students may choose to apply for a GTA position when they apply for the MA program.
